Reading 3: Items 19-21
Situation: Read the news report.

(1) CBC News – Thousands of people lost their lives and thousands more were injured in a 7.8-magnitude earthquake that hit Nepal's capital Kathmandu and its surrounding areas on Saturday.

(2) Nepal is a country located between China and India. One of its best-known features is Mount Everest, the highest point on Earth. It is a low-income country which continues to struggle with high levels of hunger and poverty.

(3) The earthquake occurred on a "thrust fault," according to Maclean's Magazine. One piece of the Earth's crust, far underground, is moving at 45 millimeters a year, underneath another piece.

(4) There was extensive damage to homes and ancient monuments in Nepal, including some temples in the country's capital city, Kathmandu, that are hundreds of years old. As many as 35 villages have been devastated by the earthquake. The earthquake also caused a massive avalanche on Mount Everest that wounded or killed the numerous people who were climbing the mountain at the time.

19. What is this news report mainly about?
    1. The avalanche on Mt. Everest
    2. The powerful earthquake in Nepal
    3. The cause of the earthquake
    4. The recovery of Nepal from the earthquake

20. Which of the following can be inferred about the earthquake in Nepal?
    1. It caused damage in many cities throughout the country.
    2. It was the first earthquake that ever happened in Nepal.
    3. It occurred because of a huge avalanche on Mount Everest.
    4. It occurred at a time when it was popular to climb Mount Everest.

21. What is the third paragraph mainly about?
    1. Facts about Nepal
    2. The cause of the earthquake
    3. The power of the earthquake
    4. The capital city of Nepal

Reading 4: Items 22-24
Situation: Read the joke.

A man is driving along a road. He sees a sign in front of a house: Talking Dog For Sale. He rings the bell and the owner shows him the dog in the backyard.

"You talk?" he asks. "Yes," the dog replies. "So, what's your story?" the man asked. The dog looks up and says, "Well, I worked as a spy for the CIA for many years. I also worked at the airport checking passengers for drugs. I am married with three puppies now."

The man is amazed. He goes back in the house and asks the owner what he wants for the dog. "Ten dollars," the owner says. "Ten dollars? This dog is amazing. Why are you selling him so cheaply?" "Because he's a big liar. He never did any of the things he told you."

22. Which event happened first in the story?
    1. The man saw a sign.
    2. The man talked to the dog.
    3. The owner took the man to the backyard.
    4. The dog told the man he worked for the CIA.

23. Why did the owner of the dog want to sell the dog?
    1. The dog was a liar.
    2. He needed some money.
    3. He preferred a quiet life.
    4. The dog caused him a lot of trouble.

24. According to the story, which of the following statements is TRUE?
    1. The dog could not talk.
    2. The dog was 10 years old.
    3. The price of the dog was ten dollars.
    4. The owner of the dog felt sorry for the man.

Reading 5: Items 25-27
Situation: Read the feature story.

Celebrated on April 1, April Fools' Day, also known as All Fools' Day, is a day for tricks, pranks and jokes. A simple example of a joke would be telling your friend that his shoelaces are undone. Then, when he bends down to do them up, you shout, 'April Fools!'

Although April Fools' Day has been celebrated for several centuries by different cultures, its exact origins remain a mystery. One theory suggests that the day comes from the change in the calendar in Europe from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar. This moved the New Year from April 1 to January 1. When people forgot and still celebrated the New Year on April 1, other people played practical jokes on them.

ประมาณ

Historians have linked April Fools' Day to festivals such as Hilaria, which was celebrated in ancient Rome at the end of March and involved people dressing up in disguises. There is also speculation that April Fools' Day was tied to the vernal equinox, or first day of spring in the Northern Hemisphere, when Mother Nature fooled people with changing, unpredictable weather.

25. What is the passage mainly about?
    1. April Fools' pranks
    2. An ancient Roman festival
    3. The background of April Fools' Day
    4. The change in the calendar in Europe

26. Which of the following would NOT likely be a joke played on people on April Fools' Day?
    1. Placing salt in a sugar bowl
    2. Covering a bar of soap in clear nail polish
    3. Untying shoelaces before taking shoes off
    4. Switching the signs for ladies' and men's toilet

27. What can be inferred from the passage?
    1. At the Hilaria Festival, Roman people dressed up in traditional costumes.
    2. April Fools' Day may originate from the Romans' fondness for practical jokes.
    3. Practical jokes were played only on those who did not remember the New Year had been changed.
    4. Julian calendar was changed to Gregorian calendar because European people preferred to celebrate the New Year in winter.

Reading 6: Items 28-31
Situation: Read the article.

(1) In August 2018, a 10-year-old boy named Clark Kent Apuada swam for the Monterey County Aquatic Team and competed at the Far West International Championship in California. He won the 100-meter butterfly.

(2) As his name is similar to the renowned superhero, Clark became known as "Superman". Even more impressive, Clark continues to win awards even though he has only been swimming competitively for four years.

(3) Clark's supernatural abilities aren't confined to the pool, either. "He does piano lessons, he does martial arts, and at school if there's a computer class, he's always joining. He excels at all of these," his father, Chris Apuada, said.

(4) "I love swimming because I have a lot of people supporting me. My coaches are always there for me and my parents are always there," Clark said. To others trying to discover their own powers, Clark said he believes it's a matter of determination. "Dream big," he said, "and always focus on your dreams and have fun."

28. What do we learn from the first paragraph?
    1. Clark Kent Apuada used to be a weak swimmer.
    2. A swimming competition was held in Monterey ten years ago.
    3. Clark Kent Apuada won a swimming competition in California.
    4. A 10-year-old boy won the world championship for swimming.

29. Why was Clark Kent Apuada called "Superman"?
    1. He thought he could fly like Superman.
    2. He loved to watch the movie Superman.
    3. He could swim very fast like Superman.
    4. Part of his name is the Superman character's real name.

30. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as one of Clark Kent Apuada's supernatural abilities?
    1. Singing
    2. Swimming
    3. Piano playing
    4. Doing martial arts

31. What is the best description of Clark Kent Apuada?
    1. A strong swimmer who supports his family.
    2. A dreamer with a lot of supernatural support.
    3. A boy with good support and strong determination.
    4. An average swimmer with a big dream and a lot of support.

Reading 7: Items 32-35
Situation: Read the article.

A hundred and three huge shipping containers filled with plastic and electronic garbage have been sitting at a port near Manila, the Philippines's capital city. The president of the Philippines, Rodrigo Duterte, gave a "warning" to Canada that it needs to take back the garbage. "Prepare a grand reception," he said. "Your garbage is coming home."

The shipping containers were shipped from Canada in 2012 and 2013. The containers are labelled "plastic." The contents were sent to the Philippines to be recycled.

However, customs inspectors say the containers are actually full of about 2,500 tons of household garbage, plastics and electronics. Only about a third of what is in the containers can be recycled, according to the Globe and Mail.

Environmentalists in the Philippines and in Canada say that Canada has an obligation to take the garbage back. They say the waste is "illegal." They point to the Basel Convention, which is an agreement about how hazardous waste may be transported, especially from western countries to developing countries.

Canada is taking steps to reclaim the garbage. However, there is an issue about who will pay for its transportation because the government cannot try to get the money from the company that sent it until all of the garbage is back in Canada again.

32. What can be inferred from paragraph 1?
    1. Canada is happy to take responsibility for the waste.
    2. The Philippines will declare war against Canada.
    3. The Philippines will send all the garbage back to Canada.
    4. The Canadian waste will continue sitting at the same place.

33. Why was the Canadian waste considered "illegal"?
    1. It contained all hazardous materials.
    2. It did not conform to the rules of the Basel Convention.
    3. The waste trade is prohibited in developing countries.
    4. The Philippines government did not allow waste import.

34. According to the passage, which of the following is TRUE?
    1. Canada is not permitted to take the garbage back.
    2. The Canadian rubbish was sent to the Philippines 5 years ago.
    3. The waste from Canada is composed of plastic, electrical equipment and household waste.
    4. The Canadian government will take steps to force the company to send more waste to the Philippines.

35. What is this article mainly about?
    1. The environmental problems in the Philippines
    2. The process of recycling plastic trash in Canada
    3. A garbage dispute between the Philippines and Canada
    4. A treaty on waste disposal between the Philippines and Canada
